“Your faithfulness continues through all generations” Psalm 119:90
November 2018

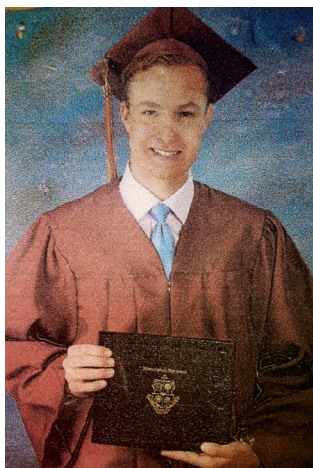

Paul and Wendy Allaire's granddaughter, Kyra Catherine Schwartz, graduated on June 3rd for Serra Catholic Elementary School in Rancho Santa Margarita. She will be continuing her high school studies at Santa Margarita Catholic High School, also in Rancho Santa Margarita. Kyra enjoys drama and music and is already involved in those groups at her high school.

Their grandson, Nicholas Evan Schwartz, graduated on June 11th from J Serra Catholic High School in San Juan Capistrano. His academic GPA was 4.2

and he will be entering Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles in January. He was also accepted at USC and will transfer there in his sophomore year.

Their family is very proud of both graduates.

Congratulations

TLC Family Night
Hanging of the Greens & Chili Supper
Friday, November 30 @ 6:00pm

Time to prepare for Advent with our Hanging of the Greens service and chili supper. We will gather first for a chili supper and then head into the church to “hang the greens” ie decorate the Chrismon Tree and Sanctuary. Please bring a can of chili to add to the pot.
