Cemeteries and particularly grave markers announce what we all know — people are born, live and then die.

By contrast, Jesus Christ's grave tells a different story. He, in behalf of all people, lived, died and rose again from the dead. He has restored life-eternal to all who trust in His victory. 1 Corinthians 15:55-57 announces this glorious truth: "O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

But not everyone rejoices over this joyful turn of events. Many insist that Jesus Christ didn't rise from the dead. The first recorded denial is found at Matthew 28:13: "(The chief priest) told them (Roman guard), 'You are to say, 'His disciples came during the night and stole Him away while we were asleep.'" Far from disputing the soldiers' testimony, the chief priest demanded that the soldiers fabricate and tell an enduring lie. Many continue to deny the resurrection today.

It is vital that we affirm the fact of Christ's resurrection. Why? As 1 Corinthians 15:17 states, "If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins." If Jesus is dead, the Christian Faith is a delusion and we still simply live only to die. But how shall we defend the resurrection?

The Bible presents Christ's resurrection by eyewitness testimony. This recognized method of presenting evidence occurs in courtrooms around the world today. Acts 1:3 reports: "He (Jesus) presented Himself alive to them after His suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God." The word "proofs" was a term designating "legal evidence" or "indisputable information." Christ ate with the eyewitnesses and invited them to touch Him and determine for themselves that He was truly alive.

The Apostle Paul also presents Christ's resurrection through eyewitness testimony as one would in courtroom. "For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that He was buried, that He was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that He appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then He appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then He appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, He appeared also to me." (1 Corinthians 15:3-8).

The eyewitnesses of the resurrected Christ refused to deny their testimony as they were cross-examined by opposition and suffered torture and even martyrdom. They unwaveringly rejoiced in the victory of Christ of over sin and death. They remained steadfast in the reality and power of His bodily resurrection.

Men Assisting Seminary Students

Jacob Manning

Vicar Manning has survived his first Advent season as an almost Pastor. He noticed Pastors can be a little busy at that time of the year. He preached the mid-week service which was a challenge for him. He was teaching, all a little chaotic but he loved it! He now understands that the Advent season is one with a duality about it. There is the birth of Christ, but there are people who experience Christmas without the loved one with whom they have been celebrating Christmas for the longest time.

Jacob is a little bit busy with his wedding plans which will be August 9th . He is asking for prayer for his fiancé Julie and himself for all the planning that goes in to said occasion. Speaking of prayer, he also asks for our prayer for the fire victims in the LA fires.

Ben Wagner

Ben is learning that seminary studies are not getting easier. He is also enjoying the increase as each week brings new insights and challenges. He continues to be amazed by how much the Lord is teaching him.

He is dealing with a viral respiratory infection that hit him hard. The virus took away his voice for two weeks. Ben is keeping up with his studies, but other programs have been pushed back some. One course is Hebrew exegesis (If you wish the definition ask goggle).

Ben wishes the members of Trinity to know he can't thank you enough for your generosity and prayers. Your support is what allows Ben to be at the Seminary. For those who were unaware, Ben was putting off his going to the Seminary due to a lack of needed funds. Your assistance is why he is there. So far, he has been able to maintain his A average.

He asks for our continued support with prayer also.

What does that mean?

Maundy Thursday

The term “Maundy” comes from the Latin “mandatum;” it is from a verb that means “to give” or “to order” — command. After Jesus and the disciples finished the Last Supper and walked toward Gethsemane, Jesus taught them a new commandment — “I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another” (John 13:34).

The Last Supper

On the first Maundy Thursday, after they had eaten, Jesus gave the disciples his body and blood together with the bread and wine for the forgiveness of their sins. Called Holy Communion or the Eucharist, Lutherans believe this to be one of two sacraments — gifts from God. Most worship services focus on the meal and communion as a way to commemorate this day.

Stripping of the Altar

At the end of the Maundy Thursday service it is customary to “strip the altar,” which symbolizes the abandonment of Jesus by his disciples and the stripping of Jesus by the soldiers before his crucifixion. It represents the humiliation of Jesus and the consequences of sin as a preparation for the celebration of new life. In many congregations Psalm 118 is read or sung while the paraments are being removed.

Good Friday Service (Tenebrae)

“Shadows/Darkness”

Tenebrae is usually held the evening of Good Friday and includes the gradual dimming of the lights and extinguishing of candles. The Christ candle is removed from the sanctuary and a concluding “Streptitus” or loud noise (slamming shut the Bible) symbolizes the earthquake and agony of creation at the death of Christ.

Restored in Christ Lenten Series

As the season of Lent continues we move forward with our theme of “Restored in Christ”. The brokenness of our lives and our world, turns our focus to Christ so that we can be restored by Him through the cross.

Each service in this stirring series has been focusing on a various events in the Lenten story which takes a good, hard look at a broken element from that particular story. Coming to an understanding of how each of these broken elements leads to restoration in Christ is key to understanding what it ultimately means to live today as new creations in Christ.

We Give Thee But Thine Own

When we sing this hymn, we mainly think of giving money. But, what if we changed our viewpoint and think of one of our other assets—Time.

Most of us consider time in worship, time well spent. That is an hour or so a week. What do we do with the rest of the hours in the week. Some have jobs or are busy at home or are at school. Some have other commitments or hobbies.

All of us have a few extra hours to devote to the Lord. There are groups that meet during the month that would enjoy seeing more people in attendance. Clean-up day could use a few more workers. A substitute Sunday School teacher is needed.

Think about it. YOU could be the person God has placed at Trinity to do the job.

“Who Killed Jesus”

Who killed Jesus? God did! Jesus Himself! This man was handed over to you by God's set purpose and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked men, put Him to death by nailing Him to the cross. Acts 2:23

The day after He rode into Jerusalem to loud Hosannas, Jesus disrupted things in the Temple. The Jewish leaders, the chief priests, the scribes, the Temple leaders could have called for Jesus to be killed then. So, while they plotted to put Him to death they did nothing. The time had not come.

The people of Jerusalem, the ones who a few days before had shouted Hosanna now yelled “Crucify Him.” All these disparate people who hated each other, were, for once, in agreement. They found it beneficial to work together to kill the Son of God.

The Romans were afraid Jesus would lead an insurrection. Pontius Pilate claimed to find Jesus innocent. He washed his hands of Jesus blood, but, turned Him over to the Romans.

Jesus death on the cross secured salvation for millions and provided the only way God could forgive sins without compromising His holiness and perfect righteousness. It was the ultimate expression of God's love for sinners. God put Jesus to death for our sin so we could live in sinless righteousness before Him, righteous only because of the cross.

For our sake He made Him to be sin Who had no sin, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God. 2 Corinthians 5:21

Who was it that killed Jesus? All of us, because of our sin, are guilty. And yet, we are not wholly responsible for Jesus death in the ultimate sense-for our redemption from sin and its penalties, through the suffering and death was according to the Will of God, the father and Jesus Himself.

God himself gave His only begotten Son... John 3:16. Isaiah tells us the Lord decided his Servant would suffer sacrifice to take away the sin and guilt of others Isaiah 53:10. Jesus Himself said I lay own My life... no one takes it from Me but I lay it down myself. This command I have received from my father. John 10:17-18. The crucifixion happened only because God the Father and Jesus' willingness. It was God's plan from the beginning.

We who have come to Christ in belief are guilty of His blood, shed on the cross for us. He died to pay the penalty for our sins. But He Who was pierced for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities. Isaiah 53:5

The death of this Man is at the heart of our faith. For us, Jesus death restores our broken relationship with God. Hallelujah!

Phyllis Hafliger

Today, we share in the victory of Christ's death and resurrection in our baptismal faith. Romans 6:4 declares, “We were buried therefore with Christ by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.” Christ's resurrection restores life to all who trust in Him.

What cemeteries and grave markers announce has been demolished and a new reality is in place. “Death has been swallowed up in victory... thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ” (1 Corinthians 15:54b & 57).

Christ is Risen! He is Risen Indeed! And we are alive through Him!

LWML Lutheran Women's Missionary League

We had another very interesting talk on the Lutheran Deaconess program for our March luncheon. Seems the snowbirds are starting to leave as we only had about 9 attending. I'm urging all you gals who have not joined yet to give us a try!! We try and have interesting programs and of course the lunch is always good. The best part is the fellowship when you can get to know some of your fellow congregants a bit more.

We also periodically have ingatherings and projects for the different groups that we support here in the valley and elsewhere.

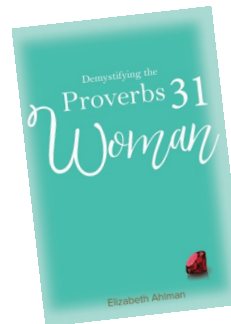

In April our speaker will be Lutheran Church Charities who will give us an overview of the programs they offer but concentrating on their Comfort Dog program. Should be a good one! There are so many Lutheran charities and programs you would be amazed and they are all so eager and grateful to share with us all the great work they are doing around the world. Please plan on attending. We only have our May meeting left and I am REALLY looking forward to that one! No spoiler alerts lol.

DOA Daughters Of the Almighty Ladies' Bible Study Fridays @ 10am

Proverbs 31:10-31 has become a beloved, often-quoted passage. We have learned to look to it for guidance on how to be a better woman--yet it is often misunderstood and misapplied.

Demystifying the Proverbs 31 Woman is an authoritative yet inviting discussion of the passage in terms of language, history, purpose, and application. Readers will come away with a sense of renewal and affirmation--and a keener understanding of the biblical example of the Proverbs 31 woman. What shines through is not a prescription for how to become a better wife, mother, woman, or friend, but a description of our Savior, the Church, and ourselves.

Unfold the riches this proverb offers. You will find Jesus there. We have two more lessons. Jump in anytime!
